Rob Grimes

SKILLS

With a Bachelor's degree in Software Engineering, I have continued to expand my web development skills over time via courses and self learning to possess a good knowledge of the technologies used in all aspects of web development.

I have a personal portfolio site which showcases my projects at robgrimes.uk

The stack that I use is MERN, with the majority of my recent work consisting primarily of the framework NextJS.

I am highly motivated to learn and develop, both by myself and as part of a team while continually keeping up to date with the latest technologies. I possess web programming skills in the following:

- Basics
 - HTML5
 - CSS
 - JavaScript
 - jQuery
 - JSON
- Styling
 - Sass
 - Bootstrap
 - Semantic UI
- Frameworks
 - React
 - NextJS
- Server-side
 - NodeJS
 - Express
 - MongoDB
- Other
 - Git/Github
 - Npm
 - Command line
